I. COUNSELING

UGANDA: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
This is an unusual DV program that believes that to stop Gender Based Violence you must work with the men. They also do great work with community education; working with women and are developing the kids' program. Set in one of Uganda’s most charming and genteel towns. Do you have strong clinical, outreach and/or organizational skills in DV? We need you!

TANZANIA: SOCIAL WORK IN COMMUNITY
This social work organization does a stellar job addressing the needs of their community: working with youth and children; DV; women, the disabled; AIDS and palliative care; prostitution; and a creative micro-finance scheme to help people generate income. Tanzania is a great location: a ferry from the fascinating Zanzibar and a bus ride away to the Serengeti & Kilimanjaro.

SRI LANKA: COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
This organization has many facets including counseling program and community education programs for people that may shy away from coming for counseling. Sri Lanka is a tropical island paradise.

NEPAL: BUILDING SOCIAL SERVICES
From 1996 to 2006, the Maoists attempted to overthrown the monarchy that essentially kept Nepal as a feudal society. This organization has helped families of the missing or tortured. This organization fills in the gaps in social services. e.g. It helps women escape domestic violence or who have mental illness or who are vulnerable to being trafficked. If you love mountains, you will be located in one of Nepal’s most beautiful locations.

THAILAND: DANCE & MOVEMENT THERAPY
Volunteer with innovative organization that helps youth through dance & movement therapy. They are now expanding to incorporate music and music therapy.
II. POVERTY
In international humanitarian work, what distinguishes Social Work is our training regarding poverty.

UGANDA: COMMUNITY ORGANIZING
Women's organization that works in rural villages does stellar job at mapping community strengths and needs, then designing interventions. Working in the villages will you help understand what makes Africa tick. Their work in town is also in one of Uganda's most charming towns. Strong skills in community organization or want to work with women? We need you!

MONGOLIA: SLUMS
60% of the people in the capital, Ulaan Baatar, live in the yurt slums. Nomads have flooded the capital hoping to capitalize on Mongolia's new found mineral wealth. Jane Addams would be proud: help with quality of life and lifting people out of poverty in the slums - water, sanitation, solar cookers, housing, and creating livelihoods & generating income.

BOLIVIA & PERU: STREET YOUTH
Like Mongolia, people have flooded the cities, hoping to find work. There is none. All over the world, where poverty prevails, kids and youth are the ones that suffer; it is the youth and kids that are pushed to make an income for the family shining shoes. Have experience working with children, youth and families, or in Child Protection? We need you!

MOROCCO: REFUGEES & WOMEN
Morocco is a crossroads where refugees & immigrants from sub-Sahara Africa push their way into Europe. Women are second class citizens who have been excluded from education. Come teach literacy and women their rights. Morocco is also a fascinating place to gain insight into Islamic culture and wander the old medina's souks.

Both seasoned professionals & students needed.
